

Federal E-SIGN Act Disclosure and Consent

We are pleased to offer you the opportunity to receive information about your account electronically. If you would like to receive correspondence from us via email or internet, instead of paper copies through the mail, please review this notice and provide your consent. This notice applies to all documents, notices, and disclosures that we provide to you relating to the account for which you are applying for or have with Oxford Bank, except or otherwise prohibited by law.

Please read the Federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act ("E-SIGN") Disclosure and Consent carefully and print a copy for your records. Successfully opening this sample PDF and viewing the document, you demonstrate your ability to access the electronic documents the Bank would be sending to you. You can record your consent to the E-SIGN disclosure by placing a check mark in the box on the webpage. By checking the box on the webpage, you consent to the electronic delivery of any disclosures, agreements, change notices, changes to the terms and conditions of your account and any other documents or notices (together, the "Documents") that we provide to you relating to your account. You have the right to request any electronic document in paper form; we will not provide you with paper (non-electronic) copies of any Documents unless you have specifically requested them. You may incur a fee for paper copies. Please contact us for more information about the fee or to withdraw your consent from receiving documents electronically.

Electronic Delivery of Disclosures and Notices

By using Oxford Bank's website or the Bank's online account opening platforms, you agree, for yourself and all account holder(s) on all your account(s), that Oxford Bank may provide statements, notices, disclosures, agreements, and other information concerning your account(s), products or services offered or accessible through the online banking service or the Bank's online account opening platform (collectively "Documents"). You agree that Oxford Bank can send you Notices (1) to the email address that you provided to Oxford Bank during enrollment or, (2) by posting the Notice on the website home page of the applicable service. The delivery of any Notice from Oxford Bank is effective when sent by Oxford Bank, regardless of whether you read the Notice when you receive it or whether you actually receive the delivery, to the extent permitted by applicable law. Account alerts are offered as a customer convenience only and are not a replacement for your duties and obligations under the applicable Deposit Account Terms and Conditions.

To use the Online Account Opening Platform or the Bank's website and to access, receive, and retain the Documents. You must provide at your own expense, an Internet connected device that is compatible with this financial institution's Online Account Opening product deployed at the time of access. You confirm that your device will meet these specifications and requirements and will permit you to access, view, and retain the Documents electronically each time you access and use the Online Account Opening product. Your device must meet the minimum requirements outlined in the System Requirements to Access Information.

Please click on the links to review the account opening disclosures and other documents prior to continuing. To keep a copy of any document that you view online, you may print the document by selecting "Download." Select your printer and click on OK or select Save to retain a copy on your PC. You should not sign up for online account opening using a public computer.

If you do not want to receive the Documents electronically, you should exit this area of our website. If you do not consent to receiving the Documents electronically, you will not be able to open the deposit account or loan application via our website. You may be able to open an account by visiting a branch or by contacting us without consenting to the E-Sign act via these channels.
